BARNSELEY (S. MARY) NATIONAL SCHOOLS.

DEAR SIR,

The COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL ON EDUCATION having condemned the above Schools as quite inadequate to the wants of this parish, and also having refused to sanction any alteration or enlargement thereof, we are compelled to erect New Buildings, at a cost (including site) of about £2,600.

There is now no Boys' School whatever for this Parish, which contains more than 8,000 inhabitants. The new Schools will provide for 600 Children,—the existing ones accommodating 200 only.

As we are still short of upwards of £500, and as most of the Parishioners who can afford have subscribed liberally, we trust you will kindly pardon our soliciting your generous aid in this most important work.

We are, Dear Sir,

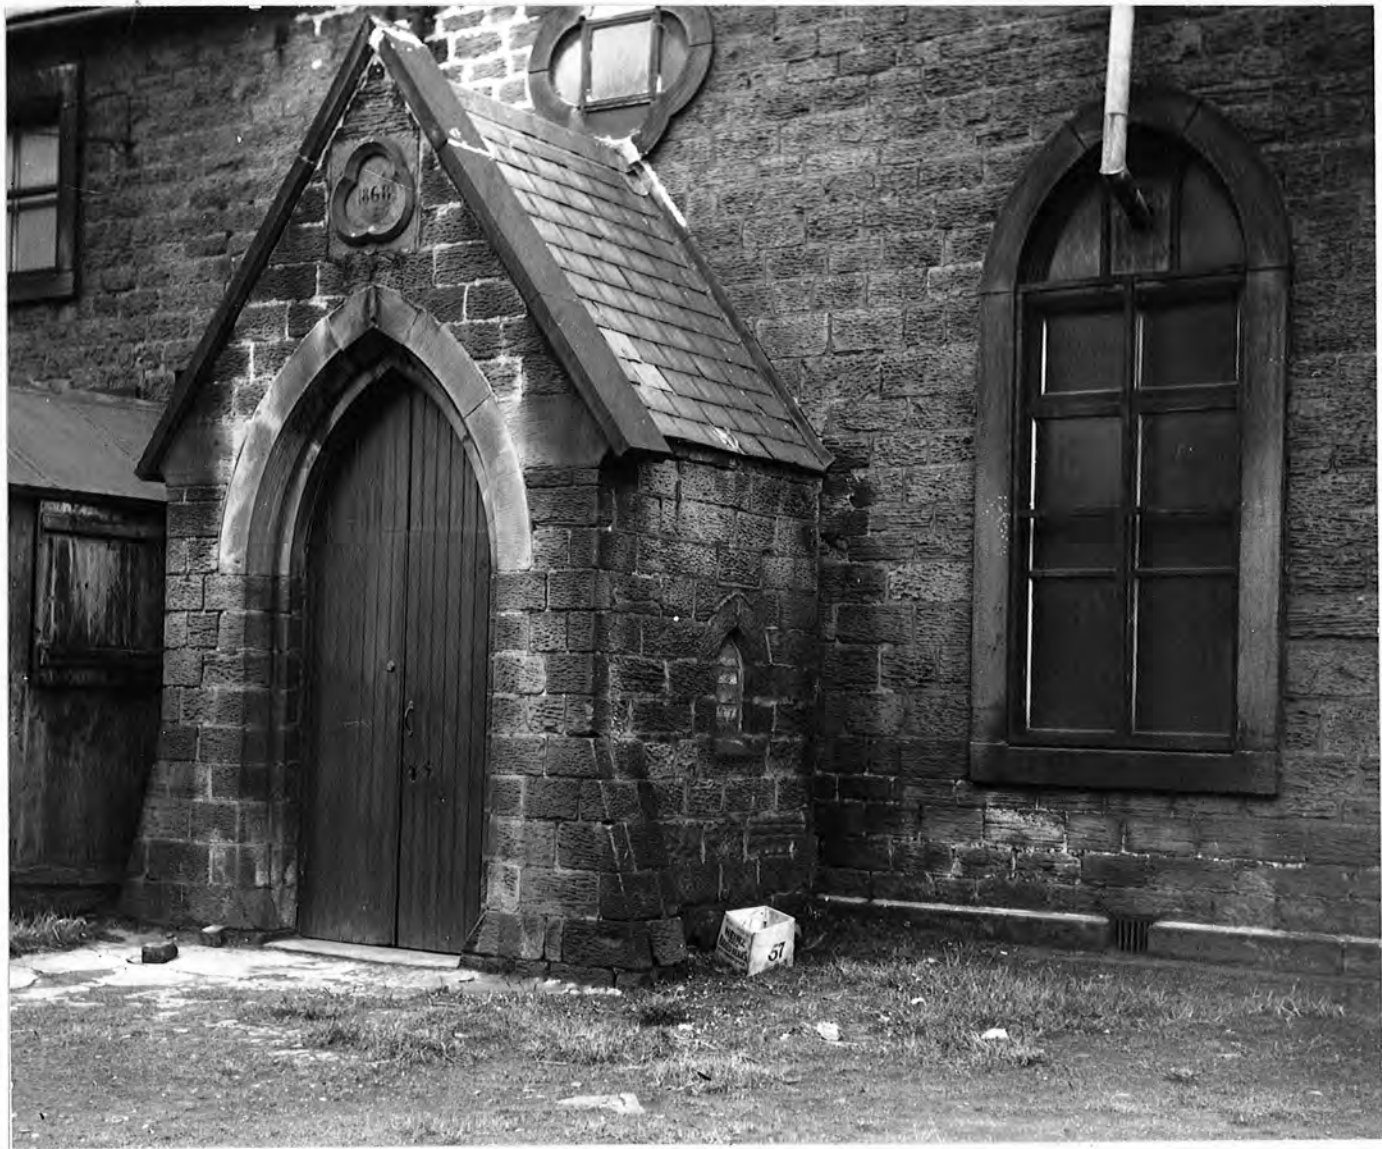

Your faithful servants,

HENRY J. DAY, Vicar.
